IN RECOGNITION of the stalwart part the community must play in the story of Progress in Education as exemplified by the action of our

SCHOOL BOARD

in the construction of the addition to our High School in order to give to the students of Brentwood

EDUCATIONAL FACILITIES

of the most modern type

The story of Progress must ever look backward to those whose courage, faith, and earnest desire for better things lead them to act when it would have been far easier to do otherwise and our own story of

PROGRESS IN EDUCATION

in Brentwood could not have been told

SAMUEL E. McDONALD

High School Principal

When Mr. McDonald first became a teacher of high school education in Brentwood in the years of 1930-31, our High School consisted of two rooms in the Elroy School. In the fall of '31 the High School was increased by the addition of one room in Moore School, and by two in the Christian Church. In February '32 the present High School building was completed, and Mr. McDonald was appointed Principal. At that time commercial subjects were added and by '35 our program of studies included three courses—Academic, Commercial, and General. Now our school is trying to change the subject matter taught to those not going to college, from college preparatory work to that which will be more practical and helpful to them when they go out to look for a job. In addition, courses in Consumer Education were organized this past year.

A great deal of progress has been made in the schools in Brentwood since Mr. McDonald became Principal. This year an addition has been built which provides Brentwood High School with a new gymnasium, an auditorium which can seat the entire student body, cafeteria, music room, and a few regular class rooms.

Brentwood High School is proud to show the public a beautiful building which should be an inspiration to all students passing through its halls.

THE SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

This year brings to a close our high school days and we, the seniors, regret leaving Brentwood High School where we have formed many friendships. We have joined in both recreation and work. And now that we have become so closely associated we feel no happiness in being compelled to separate.

At our first class meeting last fall we elected Harry Viehman as president. William Sutter became the Vice President. Bernice Gould, Secretary and Earl Steurmann, Treasurer received the same positions they held in their junior year. Mr. Midgley was selected by popular vote to be the senior sponsor. With these people as our leaders we have made our senior class one of the most active classes Brentwood High School has ever graduated.

We have spent pleasant evenings at swimming parties and dances, but we particularly liked our Senior Class Party held on Friday, December 15. We were proud to be the first class to hold a social event in our new gymnasium. A huge Christmas tree was placed in the center of the floor. After we danced for a few hours, Mr. Wingrove as Santa Claus appeared and gave each Senior a toy.

Our class play "For Pete's Sake" has been characterized as the best play ever produced in B. H. S. Twelve of our 220 Seniors showed their dramatic talents on March 8.

We completed our days of studying on May 15 and the next day went to South Park for our class picnic. There we had fun, bike-riding, playing mush ball, and dancing

Then for our last and best social event of the year, we went to the South Hills Country Club for our Senior Junior Prom. Bill Le Roy and his orchestra entertained us for the evening

We joined in singing our Alma Mater for the last time as Seniors on the night of May 28, the night of our commencement. Our class was the largest fortunate to have the privilege of being the first class to be graduated in the new auditorium. With these exercises, we, as students, have been separated from Brentwood High and now we leave to continue to better our lives by our worthy achievements.

To The Seniors

For four full years we've made our way,
To this our high school, day by day.
We've struggled, trying to succeed,
And now as we're about to leave,
Let's face the future with a smile,
And have high hopes, the Brentwood style
So let's be proud, for others could,
To say we hail from old Brentwood

IN MEMORIAM

CLARA DLUHOSH

Died September 13, 1939

When events of youth are faded,
And schoolhood days are gone,
When memories of Brentwood,
Are lost as years roll on.
Then leaning through this volume,
Your mind will wander too,
To the joys in dear old Brentwood High,
And all the friends you knew.

BRENTWOOD ALMA MATER

All Hail to Alma Mater, Hail to Brentwood High
A Fountain of Pure Water, Rising to the Sky.
We Shall Strive for You, Sing Our Praise to You,
And We'll E'er Be True to the Gold and Blue.
With Love and Truth and Honor,
And God to be Our Guide
Live on, Our Alma Mater, to the End of Time

In You Our Alma Mater, Lives Our Mounting Pride!
In You O Alma Mater, Lives Our Future's Guide
We Shall Strive for You, a Name to Raise
Our Very Lives, Shall Exalt Your Praise
We Pledge in Aspiration, to Strive for Aught but Good
For Truth and Peace and Progress

THE ANTHEM

In February The Anthem Staff of 1940 was organized and the work on this year's book was started. Milton Seiler and Bernice Gould were chosen as editor and associate editor, respectively. With the helpful guidance of Mr. Wingrove, the staff selected the engraver and printer and soon had busied themselves.

The theme, "Progress in Education," was inspired by the addition to the building. We have attempted to show the "Progress in Education" in the Brentwood Schools by making a contrast between the new and the old as they relate to our schools and student activities.

It has also been our aim to make progress in the production of our book. This year's staff has set a precedent by not printing the book in either the conventional black or in the school colors of blue and gold. Instead we have used a combination of brown and orange in order to brighten the book and to add beauty to it. A padded cover is another feature that was not used until this year. The cover also portrays the theme by the dies depicting the old frontier school as contrasted with a modern school tower.

The late start we had this year caused us to work hard and long but we think that the book is worth the time and work we put into it.

[illegible]

Many members of the "Mystic Club" were fortunate to go to Reading Den. Also in the group were Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smith. These students were accompanied by Mrs. G. L. Smith, Mrs. E. L. Kiser, Mrs. C. L. Smith, Mrs. J. L. W. Smith, and Frank Zier. Mrs. Householder also attended.

The President also sent a letter to the members of the year's work and a letter to the members of the year's work. At the same time, the keys were presented to the members of the year's work. Contributions to the paper.

FORUM

This year marked the second successful year of the Brentwood High Student Forum. Each class, from Senior to seventh grade, elected a representative to attend all meetings of the organization. These representatives, with Miss Moore's help, have maintained a "student voice" in important school activities.

The officers for the first semester were elected by the members of the Forum and were: Tom Young, President, Harry Viehman, Vice-President, Mary Jane Schaefer, Secretary; Assistant Secretary, Melvin Nagel; and Earl Steurmann, Treasurer. The entire student body voted in the election of the new officers at the beginning of the second semester. They chose Harry Viehman, as President; Tom Garbett for Vice-president; Mary Jane Schaefer, Secretary, Audrey Fogarty, Assistant Secretary; and Bill Shepherd, Treasurer.

The first work of the Forum was the Guidance Clinic, held November 10, 1939. Tea Dances were arranged by the Forum again this year and a new clean up campaign was inaugurated. After much debate the Student Forum adopted a constitution. Plans are being made to publish a hand-book to be distributed next September.

FOOTBALL

Under the tutelage of Coach Suttner and the leadership of Steurmann and Viehman, Brentwood's Football team had a rather unusual season.

The team traveled to camp for some pre-season training, and when school opened, practice was begun in earnest.

The first game was with Etna and Brentwood lost by a close score of 13 to 12. Then came two games that ended as ties, 0-0. One of these games was with West View and the other was with Washington.

Brentwood then hit their stride and defeated Arnold, Clark, and Verona. The Bellevue game was another 0-0 tie, and the last game was lost to our neighbor, Dormont.

THE ANTHEM of 1940

ETNA

Lesker, while watching the game from the sidelines, is knocked out by a Sophomore named Carnes.

Etsel the manager does a double flip while taking in the water bucket.

WEST VIEW

A dust screen settled over the entire field. Not the same Brentwood that played Etna the week before.

WASHINGTON

Two underclassmen shine, a Junior and Sophomore.

ARNOLD

Accamando becomes a Gentleman. After knocking down every man on the other team, he picks them up and begs their pardon.

CLARK

Viehman and Clark's halfback meet head on—Viehman comes home with one stick, Clark's man goes to the hospital.

VERONA

Sutter meets a strange accident, takes his meals standing up for the rest of the week.

BELLEVUE

Brentwood out fumbles Bellevue.

DORMONT

Dormont knew Brentwood's fake play better than Brentwood did.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

This year's basketball team didn't win the league title, but they showed the spirit that made the student body proud of them.

Brentwood was moved from Section VI of the WPIAL to Section II of that league. The other teams in our circuit were Canonsburg, Washington, Trinity, Mt. Lebanon, and Dormont. We finally got away from Homestead but now we have Canonsburg to fill the bill. Out of the ten league games played Brentwood defeated Trinity, Mt. Lebanon, and Dormont.

Practically all games lost were by close margins and aided considerably in creating the interest in basketball during the season. The scores of the opponents were kept down by the efficient guarding of Bierman and Vickless.

All home games were played in our new, magnificent gymnasium. This made the first season that games could be played at the High School. In this atmosphere such games as the Dormont and Canonsburg tilts made lasting impressions and did much to improve the spirit of the students toward athletics and their school.

The high point scorers for the season were Radosevich, Lytle, and Steurmann.

ATHLETICS

The lettermen for the season were: Radosevich, Sutter, Steurmann, Vickless, Bierman, Clapperton, Krall, Viehman, Lytle, Etzel, Ebersberger, Arensberg, Hay, Wenger, and Manager Klotz

JUNIOR BASKETBALL

The Junior Basketball team was started on its career by Coach Suttner. As this was the first year that they were playing as one unit they did well by taking third place in their league. Out of a total of nineteen games the Juniors won twelve. The squad was large and many of the players showed talent.

The lettermen for the season were: Ayres, Britt, Duff, Fox, Houston

ATHLETICS

TRACK

Coach Costolo's track men had a successful season. They took fifth place in the WPIAL Indoor Meet, fifth in the Tri-State invitational Meet, sixth in the WPIAL Relays at Connellsville, and sixth in a field of twenty-one schools at Washington, Pa. Dual meets with Duquesne and Avalon were won by the Spartans. At the Allegheny County Meet, Brentwood placed third.

A new Allegheny County high jump record was set when Marvin Augenstein jumped 5' 8½". John Lytle and Paul Fisher also broke the school pole vault record with a leap of 10' 6".

High point scorers for the season were Ebersberger, McGibbeny, Young, Augenstein, Fisher and Lytle.

Members of the 1940 team are: Augenstein, Bell, Bierman, Casey, Clapperton, Dewalt, Ebersberger, Eneshenko, Fisher, Hay, Haymond, Jackson, Lloyd, Lytle, Klotz, McClure, McConnell, McCoy, McGibbeny, Nagel, Perella, Widdell, Wilgung, Viehman, Young, and Carew, Mgr.

THE ANTHEM of 1940

CROSS COUNTRY

When the 1939 cross country season began, Coach Costolo had the task of rebuilding a team able to compete with strictly the best in this sport. Although we were handicapped in seasoned performers, the team proved capable in all the meets in which it participated.

In competition with stellar cross country aggregations, we were able to win two out of five dual meets, and placed near the top in other competitions.

McGibbeny proved a consistent performer for Brentwood, and was able to come through with three firsts.

The hill and dalers also took part in the WPIAL and PIAA championship meets. In the latter, McGibbeny qualified for the State Meet at Penn State by placing among the first twenty.

Members of the team were: McGibbeny, Young, Kotz, McClure, Wilqing, Sholtz, Lytle, Courtney, Bell, Shaeffer, Lloyd, Rothrock, Eneshenko.

Class Prophecy

Hello, radio and television audience. Seven o'clock, May 28, 1960 and from the stage of the beautiful new auditorium of the University of Michigan, I am speaking to you from the class of 1940 of this high school.

As you know, I am the only one of the class of 1940 who is still alive. I am Mr. Protheroe. Mr. Protheroe has become of all things a school teacher. Mrs. Protheroe is the former Mildred Hamilton. She has married Edward Doran, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Doran, Sr. Mr. Doran's now famous orchestra is playing at the Waldorf-Ritz plaza. His charming wife, the former Emogene Boone, is vocalist. They have just returned from Mars in their newly discovered rocket ship. It was an experimental flight made for the U. S. Government. They have been telling me about the difficult time they had getting away from Mars. It seems that the Martians did not want these two scientists to return to earth because the Martians believed that these two large-headed creatures who resembled them so much were long lost brethren.

Elmer Etzel, successful mattress magnate, has just arrived. Mr. Etzel, who has cornered the mattress market, attributed his success to Mr. Potter's English Class. And look who's coming now. It's Aileen Snee and Dorothy Schuetz, renowned artists. Miss Schuetz is married to the famous Yehudi

You ask, who are the lovely ladies just entering the room. They are Misses Ruth Davis and Mary D. Roberts, just chosen two of the 13 best-dressed women of the U. S. And here's a real treat. Entering the room is President Harry Viehman. It is debated whether or not President Viehman will run for a third term. He will not comment on this issue. With him is his trusty aide, William (Old Bill) Sutter, now heading the C. C. C. movement.

And here comes a whole party of guests. Why it's none other than "P. F. Barnum" Greenwood, owner of the Greenwood Circus, and his troop of famous artists. There is Ethel Brady, the bareback rider; Virginia and Dorothy Kirchner, the lion tamer.

And here's Mr. and Mrs. Leech. Mrs. Leech is the former Bernice Gould. They are accompanied by the Reverend William Grill, who married them.

Miss Josephine Jardini, popular artist's model, who has decorated many a Chesterfield Ad, is arriving with William Shepherd, Arrow Collar model.

And who is that attractive woman entering the hall? It is the Baroness von Halsbon Rondie Limski Korpulski (nee Betty Wiehl). She is accompanied by her divorce attorney, Robert Jacob, who is getting the final decree from Baron Korpulski, her fifth husband.

Look! Every one's laughing. And it's no wonder. Here's Irvin Schwartzman and Amy Gitzen, popular radio comedian team, and their clever gag-man, Jimmie Kehl, who is rewriting Jack Benny's old stuff for them. Later in the evening, we will be entertained by those "Three Hits and Mrs. of Swing"—Ruth Schertzinger Tracy, Dorothy Hutchins Arensberg, and Betty Roth Eneshenko.

We have just received a telegram from Miss Marion Nies, who cabled that she would be unable to attend the banquet at this time as she is a delegate to the Republican Convention in Detroit.

As you can see, I am very busy. I am very busy with my boys. "Sorry I cannot come, but I am busy with my boys."

Class Prophecy

That gentleman farmer, Herbert Lechner, is here with his aide, Bud Kirk.

The eminent poet, Richard Hartman is expected later in the evening.

Miss Doris Cross, sophisticated and charming heiress to the carrot juice industry, is escorted by that suave playboy, Louis Moats.

Census takers, Jean Robbins, Arthur R.eland, and Gilbert Schenk are here to ask questions.

Miss Elizabeth Vates, Ph. D., teacher at Vassar College and Miss Edna Ureac, instructress of languages at Bryn Mawr College are here also.

Dr. and Mrs. Albert Lesker have arrived. Dr. Lesker is the most capable bone specialist in the city.

And there is Elmer (Winchell) Wunderlich, columnist of the Pittsburgh Sun Telegraph. Probably everyone has read his famous gossip column at one time or another.

Most of the expected guests have arrived; so dinner has been announced. The guests are being seated at the table. But what's all that noise? All heads are turned to the door, and Miss Hedy La Belle, known to all of you as Adelaide Ornstein, makes a late but dramatic entrance. She is escorted by her leading man, the handsome Charles Goodwin. Accompanying her is her competent staff led by Marie Schurko, veterinarian and keeper of her famous Russian wolf-hounds, Mary Louise Nichols, private nurse; Peggy Kennedy, secretary; Betty Hiller, make up artist, and Gloria Friedman, costume designer.

The hub-bub is now subsided and the late guests take their places at the table. Dinner continues without further interruption. Dancing will follow. Afterwards the guests will take their leave.

We'll see you again in 1980 for the next Class of 40 reunion.

Jacob Grad

Mr. William Lewis

Mr. Jacob Grad

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of '40, being of unsound minds and memory (we are sure of this last statement) do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

We devise and bequeath to the school faculty more headaches, more happiness and less examinations.

To the school board we the undersigned bequeath the price of an education.

To our successors we leave the following:

Connie Bench leaves her goo-goo eyes to a flirting junior.

Bettye Conroy wills her laughing Irish eyes to Joan Klinzing.

Harry Courtney wills his physique to Buzz Arensburg.

Doris Cross wills her Thespian art to Jean Lype.

Lois Davis wills her funny faces to Miriam Bantz.

Ruth Davis leaves her charming personality to Betty Sankey.

Eddie Doran leaves his jutterbuging to Flossie Darling.

Eleanor Franz bequeaths her dancing ability to Ruth Connor.

Gloria Friedman wills her chemistry experiments to whoever wants them.

Eddie Gales leaves to permit lazy juniors to come late for him.

Sam Granutso wills his report card to the school furnace.

Mae Gimore bequeaths her olive complexion to June Bradstock.

Flo Gimper leaves her ready smile to Doris Ulrich.

Herb McGibbney leaves his shyness to Alan Carnes.

Jack Mohan wills his platinum blond hair to Julia Miller.

Bill Murdoch leaves his pleasing personality to Jim Schaefer.

Melvin Nagel bequeaths his football ability to Paul Ebersberger.

Joe Protheroe leaves his cute grin to Johnny Lytle.

Mary Louise Nicol and Violet Roos leave their neatness to Phyllis Dinninger.

Aelaide Orinstein wills her lovely red hair to Gwen Davis.

Gladys Piel bequeaths her quietness to Peggy Unger.

Bill Radosevich wills his wad of tobacco to any football player who needs it in the game.

Dorothy Range leaves her diet list of 204. (Juniors please note.)

Don Regan leaves his blushes to Jack Mazur.

Mary D. Roberts leaves her childish charm to the seventh and eighth grades.

Betty Roth wills her jutterbug antics to next year's dancing teachers.

Betty Wienl leaves a good "Confucius" saying stuffed in a pillow in the sofa of the Girl's Activity Room.

Marie Schurko leaves her smooth complexion to Jerry Ley.

Irwin Schwartzman leaves his electric razor, used once every three months.

Milton Seiler wills his editorial ability to Audrey Fogarty.

Bill Shepherd leaves his "line to anyone who will listen."

Lois Slattery bequeaths her laugh to the Sophomores.

Marian Tackitt leaves for her honeymoon.

Bill Thomas wills his deep voice to the next P. A. announcer.

Edna Uzelac leaves her original Latin translations to anyone for 50c.

Wilma Winter bequeaths her athletic skill to Ann Columbus.

Elmer Wanderlich leaves Knotty Knothole to "carry on" for "hier e ekashun."

Tom Young leaves his classic profile to an aspiring Adonis.

Ethel Brady wills her cutters to Ethel Wilson.

Bill Grill leaves his "mussie" at the barber shop.

Dick Hartman wills his poetic ability to a lucky junior.

Frank Hasenkoph bequeaths his romantic appeal to some young Cassanova.

Jarrett Herpich wills his mathematic genius to Miss Householder.

Bob Jacob bequeaths his broad shoulders to a little twerp who needs them.

Leonard Johnson leaves the dishes in the sink.

Immie Kehl leaves his "marvelous" sense of humor to Jack Benny.

Woo Klotz leaves his height to Jimmie Duff.

Ruth Krah bequeaths her eyes to Mr. Midgley.

Evelyn Kyser leaves "buttin' in wif her big mouf."

Herbert Lenchner leaves for the farms.

Al Lesker wills his curly hair to all the girls.

Dick Leech leaves with his first love. (We know, don't we?)

AROUND THE SCHOOL

Last Will and Testament

Jack Lohman leaves, still hugging his candid camera
 Bob Cochrane bequeaths his mind (what's left of it)—Mayview's calling
 Al Bierman leaves one wad of gum, chewed only one day, under the last seat in the second row of Mr Wingrove's room
 Dick Harris wills his violin to Yehudi—who's Yehudi?
 Elmer Etzel leaves Mr. Potter in pieces
 Bud Osterman leaves before they throw him out
 Walt Bradish leaves without knowing what it's all about Cookie Steurmann wills his "personality" haircut to any old junior
 Tom Carman leaves an empty seat
 Ginny Ernst wills her minuteness to an up-and-coming frosh

To the building of higher knowledge, we, the undersigned, do hereby bequeath all the gum wads, old pencils, old homework papers, and books which may be found in, around, on or under the desks

We nominate and appoint our successors as executors of our will to serve without compensation or reward, but we direct that they furnish bond for the faithful performance of their trust to the end, that they do get grades at least as good as ours, namely:
